Shareholders who are unable to attend the Company's meeting of shareholders in person may appoint their proxy in accordance with the following procedure:

- (1) Shareholders, except for foreign shareholders who have appointed custodian in Thailand, shall use only either Proxy Form A or Proxy Form B. For foreign shareholders who have appointed custodian in Thailand may use the either of Proxy Form A or Proxy Form B or Proxy Form C. Please note that each shareholder can select only one proxy form.
- (2) Each shareholder can appoint a person or an independent director of the Company (please see Attachment) as his/her proxy by specifying the names and information about the proxy and affix the signature as a proxy grantor.
- (3) The Baht 20 revenue stamp must be affixed to the proxy form, and crossed and marked with the date of proxy appointment in order for the proxy form valid and legally binding.
- (4) The proxy form shall be put in an envelope and submitted to the Company by 17 April 2019 or presented by the proxies to the Company upon the meeting registration which must be made at least 1 hour in advance of the meeting commencement to facilitate timely document examination by the Company's officers.

A shareholder who decides to appoint a proxy must assign his/her entire voting entitlement according to the total number of shares he/she owns to the proxy and is not allowed to split the entitlement. Exceptions apply to the case of foreign shareholders having appointed custodian in Thailand as they are allowed to split their voting entitlement.

3. Meeting Registration

The Company will open the meeting registration counter at least 2 hours in advance of the meeting commencement, i.e. from 12.00 hrs. of 24 April 2019 at Auditorium, FN Building, 991, Rama 9 Road, Suan Luang, Bangkok, as shown in the directions to the 2019 AGM venue enclosed herewith.

4. Voting Procedure

1. Vote casting

- (1) Votes shall be casted by way of ballot. One share represents one vote.
- (2) If a proxy grantor does not specify his/her voting decisions in a proxy form or if the voting decisions indicated in the proxy form are unclear, the proxy is entitled to make voting decisions.

2. Voting procedure applicable to each item on the meeting agenda will be announced by the management team to the meeting and is based on the following guideline:

- (1) The meeting shall proceed in accordance with the order of items on the meeting agenda. The meeting of shareholders shall cast votes on all matters which are proposed for adoption or approval or other purposes, excluding agenda item no. 2 which concerns the Company's operating results and does not require voting because it is a matter for acknowledgment. For the ease of vote casting, after the presentation on each agenda item is finished, the chairman of the meeting will ask whether there are any shareholders who wish to cast disapproval votes or abstain from voting. If there are no shareholders express their intention to cast disapproval votes or abstain from voting, it shall be deemed that the meeting unanimously approves the motion and no ballot is thus used.
- (2) Shareholders who wish to cast disapproval votes or abstain from voting shall raise their hand. In such circumstance, the chairman of the meeting will advise the use of barcoded ballots that have been distributed to shareholders before they enter the meeting room.
- (3) Shareholders and proxies who use Proxy Form A shall mark only one of the "approve," "disapprove," or "abstain" checkboxes.

(Translation)

(4) Proxies who use Proxy Form B and Proxy Form C must cast votes per the instructions given by the shareholders and the votes counted by the Company shall count only votes that are in accordance with the shareholders' instruction.

(5) Only for Agenda 5. Election of Directors, the Company requires that the votes shall be cast by way of ballots only. The votes can be cast either for all the nominated candidates as a whole or for an individual nominee.

3. Resolutions of the meeting of shareholders must comprise the following votes:

- For general matters, the majority of the votes shall be deemed to constitute the meeting's resolutions.
- For other matters which are governed by specific and different requirements under the laws or the Company's Articles of Association, the resolution requirements shall be as prescribed by such requirements. The chairman of the meeting will inform the meeting of such requirements in advance of voting on such matters.

(1) If the votes are equally divided, the Chairman shall cast an additional, deciding vote.

(2) Shareholders and proxies are not allowed to vote on matters in which they have conflicts of interest. The chairman of the meeting may request such shareholders and proxies to temporarily leave the meeting room. Exceptions apply to the vote casting on the election of directors as shareholders may nominate themselves for election without being deemed to have conflicts of interest.

4. Votes shall be counted and announced immediately and the chairman of the meeting shall report the voting results of every agenda item to the meeting.

 Please return all ballots to the Company's officer upon the meeting adjournment. ***
